The Book of Genesis:
Author: Moses
Timeframe: Spans from creation to the death of Joseph, roughly 2,000 to 2,300 years.
Meaning: Genesis is the first book of the Bible and serves as the fundamental story of origins for sin, redemption, Judaism, and Christianity.
Characters:

- God: The creator of any and everything.
- Adam and Eve: The first man and first woman. Introduced sin in the world.
- Cain and Abel: The first sons of Adam and Eve; Cain kills his brother Abel.
- Seth: Son of Adam and Eve through whom the righteous lineage continues.
- Noah: Chosen by God to build the ark and survive the flood.
- Shem, Ham, and Japheth: Noah's sons who repopulate the earth after the flood.
- Nimrod: A mighty hunter / ruler associated with the early post-flood kingdoms.
- Abraham (Abram): The foundational patriarch of God's many nations.
- Sarah (Sarai): Abraham's wife, the mother of Isaac, who gives birth in old age.
- Hagar: Sarah's Egyptian maidservant and the mother of Abraham's son Ishmael.
- Lot: Abraham's nephew who is rescued from Sodom before its destruction.
- Isaac: The promised son of Abraham and Sarah, who marries Rebekah.
- Rebekah: Isaac's wife and the mother of twin brothers Jacob and Esau.
- Esau: Jacob's older brother, a skilled hunter who sells his birthright to Jacob.
- Jacob (Israel): Esau's younger brother, who fathered the 12 tribes of Israel.
- Rachel and Leah: Jacob's two primary wives.
- Joseph: Jacob's son, who rises to power and saves his family during a famine.
- Judah: Jacob's son, through which the family tree progresses.

Book Summary Breakdown:
Part 1: Primeval History (Chapters 1–11):

- Genesis 1–2: Creation and Order
  - Genesis 1:1–31 - 2:1–3.
    • Movement from an unformed, world to ordered, flourishing life.
    • Male and female are created in God's image (1:26–27).
    • Dominion, moral responsibility, and rest to our God-given agency.
    • Applying the image of God to the way we treat people.
  - Questions
    What is Genesis 1 showing us about God?
    How is life made possible and purposeful?
    What dignity and responsibility belong to every person?
    How do creatures reflect the Creator without becoming Him?
    Knowing this, what will we do now?
    Where are people building, organizing, and influencing for good?
    Where is that same capacity used destructively?"

Part 2: Patriarchal History (Chapters 12–50):

- Genesis 12: The Call of Abram
  - Key Event: God calls Abram out of Ur, promising to make him a great nation and use his family to bless all families of the earth.
  - Question: What steps of faith did Abram have to take?
- Genesis 22: The Binding of Isaac
  - Key Event: God tests Abraham's faith by asking him to offer Isaac, then provides a ram as a substitute (Jehovah-Jireh – The Lord Will Provide).
  - Question: What does this test reveal about Abraham's faith?
- Genesis 27–32: Jacob and Wrestling with God
  - Key Event: Jacob deceives his brother Esau, flees, works for years, and later wrestles with a mysterious man at Peniel where God renames him Israel (meaning "he struggles with God").
  - Question: How does God use broken people to carry out His promises?
- Genesis 37–50: Joseph and God's Sovereignty
  - Key Event: Joseph is betrayed by his brothers and sold into slavery in Egypt, yet rises to power and ultimately saves his family from famine. Joseph famously tells them, "You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good" (Genesis 50:20).
  - Question: How can we reframe life circumstances through God?
